Memories ... Will Be Cherished

The Seabreeze Annual Signing Party is an important tradition for our Seaside High School students. Many unforgettable memories are brought back by looking through their annuals for the first time, seeing pictures, captions and notes written by their friends.

SEABREEZE

Jog-A-Thon . . . Get Set, Go!

This years Jog-A-Thon, held on Oct. 14, was a great success. The sunny day encouraged an estimated "300" people. The students and faculty spent an hour running around the track. For weeks pledges from 5¢ to 5.00 per lap had been collected. The money will be used for senior scholarships and class treasuries.

Welcome Frosh Week Frosh Learn (Quickly!)

The freshmen are being handed their shower caps and matching booties by their senior leaders. This frosh looks lost after a class meeting. The freshman are accepting their new role in life. Kris Mayfield can't believe that he is actually having a lot of fun at school. Mr. Odin and Mr. Gorchels are observing the seniors as they talk to the Frosh.

Frosh In Action

This years freshmen class started off the school year by having lunch on Monday with the seniors. During this time they were handed out their name tags by their senior leaders. Tuesday the frosh learned the fight song and sang it over and over again to the seniors. On Wednesday the frosh were each issued a shower cap and matching booties. During lunch on Thursday, the freshmen gals and guys all took turns on scrubbing the school seal. Friday the frosh ended the week by singing the fight song and alma mater to the student body at lunch time. Throughout the week, the freshmen were teamed up with various seniors that showed some leadership to the class. Each and every freshman was given a questionnaire to fill out. With the help from the seniors the freshmen completed their task.

EXCITEMENT.

Homecoming eighty-one was a huge success with classes competing all through the week to gain points for the spirit cup. Additional events were added this year and proved to be most successful. They included the tricycle race, a pie eating contest, an apple bob, a sleeping bag stuff, and an alma mater singing contest as well as a canned food drive, which brought in hundreds of cans to donate to the needy. A clear, starry night was the setting for the traditional bonfire, which drew an exceptionally large crowd.

The following night, students stayed up 'til all hours of the night working on hall decorations.

On Friday, princesses, Nancy Baty, Leasia Becker, Linda Fenton, Yuki Miyokawa, and Queen Jennifer Braun reigned over the pep assembly. Class competition ended with the Freshman coming out on top. However, the best was saved for last with the Homecoming game against the St. Helens Lions and the dance the following night.

... Fall Rally

Varisty rally '81' put forth their best effort in supporting our team. Their enthusiasm and spirit shone through even the worst of weather. Though lacking in members, their efforts were well appreciated by fans and team members alike. The rally held various pep assemblies and other spirit raising activities throughout the season. Members included Stacy Allen, De Anne Haubner, and Lisa Vaughn.

.... Gull Style

J.V. rally consisted of Lori Dane, Holly Trucke, Jenni Green, and Stacey Plummer. This group of girls worked extremely well together dedicating much of their time and effort in promoting spirit. The freshman rally as well showed much dedication and gained valuable experience that will aid them in the years to come. All in all, they had a 'rally' good time. Clockwise from top: Suzi Price, Michelle La Casse, Jean Ferron, and Kelly Lannigan.

DEATH OF A SALESMAN

The Seaside High fall play this year was Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman." It was held Nov. 19, 20, and 21. "Death of a Salesman" is about a man named Willy Loman who is a salesman and has a false dream about America and getting ahead in life. Willy has two sons which he passes his dream onto. Later in life he realizes that it was a false dream. The other son still believes in it, and carries it on. Outstanding performances were given by Doug Hauger, who played Willy Loman, Becky Mauritson, who played his wife Linda, and Biff and Happy played by Eric Polier and Peter Grant. Other characters in the play were Bernard played by Aaron Hanson, The Woman, played by Chris Osborne, Charley by Sean Adams, Uncle Ben by Larry McCluggage, Howard Wagner by Brian Bradford, Jenny by Laura Taylor, Miss Forsythe by Evon Jacobson, and Letta by Julie Booth. Out of all the dramatic serious plays, this play proved to be the most successful and enjoyable.

Home that our feet may leave,
but not our hearts.*

Coastal Recreation

The Oregon coast has much to offer, not only in the summertime, but in the wintertime as well. Living as close as we do we seem to overlook and take for granted not only it's beauty, but the many activities and uses the beach has for us. The ocean provides a fisherman's paradise, with crabbing, Salmon fishing, clamming, and shrimping being among the most popular. As for its use recreationally, "Big Blue" does a fine job of supplying waves for surfing, boogie boarding, piper boarding, and swimming. It allows the city of Seaside to enjoy a booming tourist industry, drawing hundreds to this town each year to play along it's shoreline. And finally, who would pass up the opportunity to witness a spectacular red ball of fire sinking slowly into the sea, leaving behind it the purple and pink trail of a strawberry sunset.

JUNIORS

The Junior class was known to be very active this year as they came in second place for Homecoming week. They raised funds by selling advertisements for the football programs and basketball programs also. The Juniors and Seniors together put on a dance after a football game against Astoria with which the profits went to the stereo sound system. The big project was the Jr./Sr. Prom. A lot of people went and had a great time. They also donated the plants from the prom to go on senior patio. The runners from the Jogathon helped out greatly in raising money for the school.

The Sophomore class began their second year by giving the traditional "Welcome Frosh Dance". Most everyone enjoyed themselves and especially the Freshman. The sophomores also with a lot of enthusiasm and spirit, participated in Homecoming Week. They came in third overall. They also sold carnations to the student body for Valentines Day and they ran the Jogathon with Jennifer Johnson coming in with first prize for the second year.

Talent Show

The Talent Show, held Jan. 27, 1982 was a huge success. It was sponsored by our Jazz Choir and their instructor Mr. Ogren. There were quite a few acts, most of them involving music.

The judges were Miss Muldoon, Mr. Cole, and Jessica Sund. In the end they came to the decision of Heather Morris singing "Yesterday", accompanied by Todd Chatalas on guitar as third place. Todd Chatalas, Dave Argast, Doug Hauger, and Brian Carden, combined for a second place finish doing a cinematography with their own original song entitled "Earth Song". And last, but not least, first place went to Michelle Meyers, who sang "My Romance". She was accompanied by Mr. Ogren, playing the piano. Over all, it was a very productive show and most enjoyable.

Education

Social Science

Top: Paul Webster, Leslie Osborne, Leasia Becker and Angela Frandsen were chosen as students who exemplify the skills necessary for academic excellence in the Social Sciences. The skills include research, analysis, writing, and understanding how people interact with each other. Bottom: Outstanding students in Foreign Language are Heidi Gann, Robert Gaston, Matt Neff and John Wickman. Not only is their written work excellent, but their oral work as well. They are always taking the initiative to engage in conversations out of class as well as in, and are having fun with it.

Foreign Language

Science

Many students have become very dedicated to their studies in the science field. Elwin Price is one of those students, and he spends much of his time working with holography, the process of making three dimensional pictures on film with laser light. Durrell Kapan is another such student, with his interest being in studying which organisms in the estuary grow in artificial foundations. Still another student is Eric Polier who is involved in cloning a fern. All these students, and many more, spend a great deal of time on their individual projects.

Art

The Art department has produced many talented people. Mike Wunderlich and Tim Linton do exceptional work on the potters wheel. Suzanne Parson has produced several pieces of beautiful calligraphy. Known as SHS's artists in residence are Peter Grant and Sean Adams. They have done innumerable works for various clubs and school functions. Both are pursuing careers in Graphic Arts.

Home Ec.

The Home Economics program at SHS has helped me in so many different ways. Its furthered my knowledge in child development, food preparation, food service, and gourmet foods. I've enjoyed cooking so much that I have decided to go to chef school in San Francisco. Mrs. Greenough, our past Home ec. teacher, was the one who inspired me. I owe all my thanks to her.

Tori Holmes

For the past four years I have been actively involved in the Physical Education department at Seaside High School. I plan on majoring in this field later in college. I feel that the activities in which I have participated, will help me as I begin to teach. The Physical Education program, along with it's staff, has helped me grow stronger, both physically and mentally.

Herb Truax

Phy-Ed

My four years of involvement in the athletic and physical education programs at Seaside High School have been a great experience for me. Not only have I learned just how beneficial extra-curricular activities are, but through them I have gained many valuable qualities. By being involved in athletics, I have developed a sense of pride in myself, my teammates, and my school. The self-esteem and positive attitude I have gained have carried over into all other aspects of my life. Most importantly, though, athletics have taught me how to cooperate and deal successfully with others, as well as allowing me to develop close relationships with numerous people.

Music

Music has always been an important part of education at Seaside. Michelle Meyers has been an important part of the overall program in her four years here. She has participated in the Choir, Jazz Choir, and many special musical groups and assemblies.

Below, Ray Pierce and Todd Chatalas add too the fine quality of music that is a tradition at S.H.S. These two and many others make the music programs a highly involved activity by the students.

Shop

Mr. Larry Smith has provided fine leadership in the wood shop and construction classes. Under his direction, many students have advanced their skills to high levels of excellence. Pictured here is Rick Goolsby and below Lincoln Bowser. Both worked and finished home furniture projects.

Many students entered the wood shop and mechanical drawing class to develop some hobby skills. These project and basic tool operation courses are a valuable part of education.

Senior Craig Frary also won an award for 1982 for playing Moonface in the musical.*

Going For The Pin

Gull wrestlers this year put their all into every move they made. Coach Vendrell contributed a great deal in making their season successful by showing a lot of enthusiasm and support. The eight-way wrestling meet held here in Seaside brought out the courage in all the wrestlers. The scoreboard was there to prove their efforts as their team unity and hard work led them to a victory. A new addition to the squad this year were 'Pin Pals.' They consisted of a group of girls that provided much spirit and support for the team as well as take stats and "throw in the towel."

The district tournament was held in Neah-Kah-Nie. Seaside as a team put forth a strong performance and placed fifth in the tourney. Tom Fry and Chip Stoneman qualified for the state meet by capturing second place spots. The former wrestling at 106 pounds and the latter at 148. Although the gulls didn't win a lot of dual matches with Cowapa League teams, these troops received much positive feedback regarding their good manners and sportsmanship. Chip Stoneman and Tom Fry returned from state quite pleased. Each earned a second place finish. Coach Vendrell and the returning wrestlers look forward to an even more successful season next year.

Winter Rally

The freshmen Rally gets excited before the big game. Members include Jean Ferron, Debbie Richards, Shelley Stewart, and Laura Bandonis.

Puts Forth Best Efforts Towards A Rewarding Season

The winter rally squads and wrestling pin-pals did a good job. The squads showed their spirit and enthusiasm by supporting the teams. The newly elected squads all proved to themselves that they could work together as a unit. As one of their goals they learned how to communicate with each other. The reward from the season was that each and every squad enjoyed themselves and had FUN!!!!!!

1. Varsity Rally gets ready for a cheer. 2. Good ole SHS 3. Wrestling pin pals included: Brenda Olson, Kellie Lannigan, Jeanne Taylor, Margie Morris, Rhonda Horn, Kim Egli, and Shelly Weaver. 4. The 1981-82 basketball season was one which could be termed as a "building year." The team lost 4 of its 5 starters, so several J.V. players were moved up. Even though their record wasn't too good, the team was characterized by hustle, desire, and determination. A tremendous amount of growth occurred during the year.

J.V. And Frosh Basketball 81-82

Each member of this year's frosh team finished the season with a smile of pride, satisfaction, and self-confidence and they had every right to feel that way as they completed their season undefeated, with 13 wins, 0 losses. The strong team unity they shared enabled the girls to play well together, combining each of their individual talents into one strong unit. If they continue to work closely in developing their skills as a team, it will undoubtedly prove beneficial to the seasons ahead.

The court included Freshman Prince Ron Hopla and Princess Terri Leithner, Sophomore Prince Tim Biamont and Princess Kris Beneke, Junior Prince Matt Elmes and Princess Christine Argast, Senior Prince Rick Goolsby and Princess Margie Morris. After the votes were counted Margie Morris was crowned Queen and Rick Goolsby was King. White Caps, who sponsored the dance, decorated it beautifully to the theme "By the Light of the Silvery Moon." Refreshments were also provided. The evening proved to be a big success and was enjoyed by all who attended.*

*The Varsity baseball team had a 8-17 win-loss record. One of the highlights of the season was the 15-12 win over Tillamook when Eric Hartman and Craig Huntsman each hit a homerun and Brad Olson hit 2. Due to lack of interest, the girls' golf program was cancelled this year. Gretchen Price, however, still wishing to get in some golfing this spring, joined the boys team. The season progressed fairly well with many of the participants traveling to compete on various greens throughout Oregon.

The district match was held in Forest Hills. Pat Wilson, Neal Maki, Matt Elmes, Till Spence, and Bran Holmes competed at district. The team placed fifth overall. Individually, Matt Elmes placed second, allowing him to go on to the state meet in Salem at Mc Nary Golf Course. Matt went on to win the State A, AA championship medal, with a score of

Assemblies And Special Activities

Approximately twenty-five assemblies and special activities were held during the year for the entertainment and enjoyment of the student body.

The year got off to a good start, with an all school welcome back assembly. The following however, was dedicated to the welcoming and initiating of this year's frosh. With help from the seniors, the entire class participated in such traditional events as the scrubbing of the school seal and the singing of the school songs. Other such weeks set aside for special activities included "Homecoming Week", "Christmas Week", and "Sea Week", all of which went over well.

At SHS, pep assemblies have always played an important part in stimulating athletes to perform their best, and this year was no exception. Original skits, dance routines, and yell contests, made up their agendas. After athletic teams finished their seasons, they were honored at special assemblies, and those who had won trophies at district or state levels, used this time to present them to parents, teachers, and the student body.

Two Jazz bands visited our school this year. We gladly welcomed back the Air Force band for the third year in a row with a most enthusiastic crowd. A second band from New York called Isotope also performed. Other areas of interest presented included a Shakespearean performance, three Nuclear War presentations, Career Day, Jack Ramsey discussing sportmanship, A State College Visitation, a film presentation entitled "Everyday Heroes", and a panel of past SHS graduates who spoke and gave tips about their first years in college. Still other special activities held were the Jog-a-thon, the Cabaret, the Talent Show, the A.S.B. Caucus party conventions and elections, and the Portland Timbers, who played a match of volleyball against the faculty, the Seaside Rotary Club, and selected student council members, using only their heads and feet.

And finally, to give recognition to seniors and underclassmen who have done outstanding work, the Annual Awards Assembly was held in the spring. Seniors returned to receive scholarship money as well as awards for accomplishments while in high school.

1. The jazz choir performs at the S.H.S. Cabaret. 2. At the close of each pep assembly, students join hands for the traditional singing of the S.H.S. Alma Mater. 3. A.S.B. Presidential candidate Wim Ryan, gives a most unique speech, with back-ups Paul Webster, Mike West, and Eric Hartman. 4. Incoming frosh and their parents attended a Welcome Back assembly in the fall. 5. The varsity basketball players are introduced during a pep assembly. 6. Michelle Myers, Jessica Sund, and Becky Maurtinson, perform at the S.H.S. Cabaret.

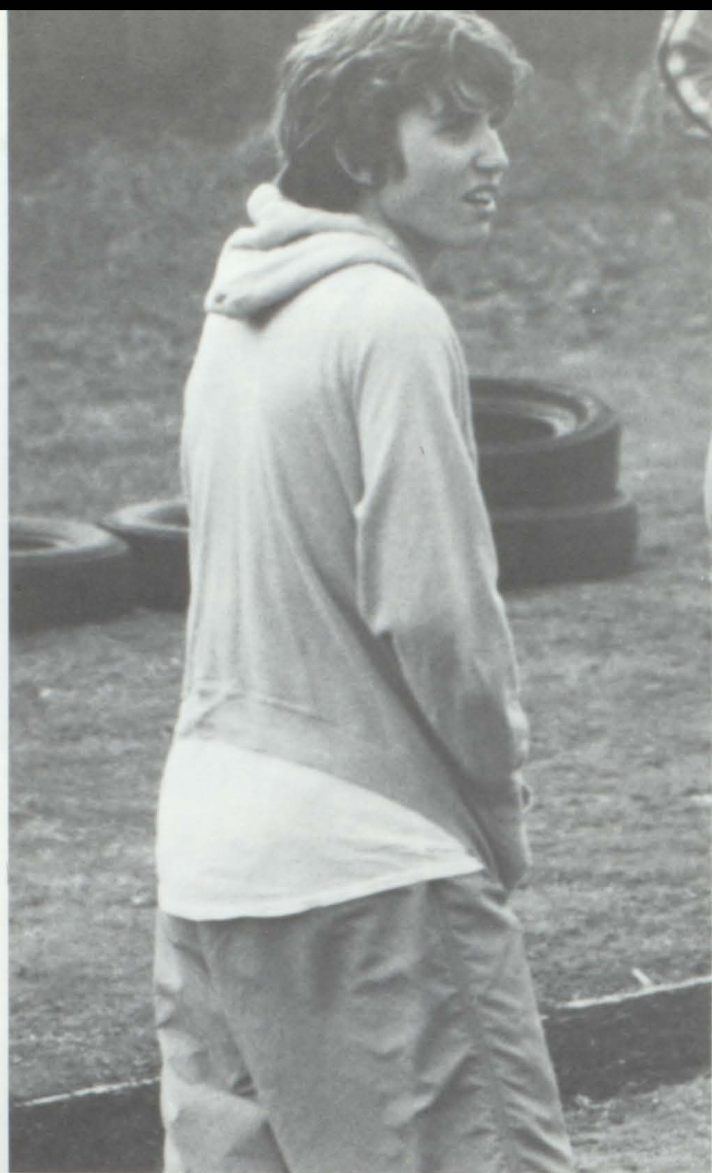

7. The Portland Timbers challenge Seaside in Volleyball. 8. Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders form pyramid at a pep assembly. 9. Joanne Eddy receives award for the Seaside High Jog-a-thon. 10. Seniors Jeff Wellington and Bryce Isle pass out 'booties' to the enthusiastic baby frosh. 11. "By the waves of calm sea ..."

Students From Foreign Countries
-an exchange of knowledge
and friendship

We have been fortunate enough to have three foreign exchange students this year. Their presence has added greatly to our student body. Yuki Miokowa was from an all girls school in Japan. She has been a member of the girls softball and volleyball teams here at SHS. Marcello Frey, from Brazil, has been a member of the boys cross country and track teams. Jaime Orendain was from Mexico. He was very helpful to the foreign language classes and club. All three students were warm, friendly people who have added much to our school.

Jazz Choir

Headed by vocal music director Jon Ogren, the S.H.S. Jazz Choir added still another enjoyable and successful year to their list of many. The group held performances in a variety of places. Such outings included a trip to Lloyd Center in Portland at Christmastime. They performed in the Fall, Winter, and Spring Concerts, as well as the S.H.S. Cabaret. The outstanding group of individuals also raised enough money to take a trip to Ellensburg, Washington, as part of a retreat.

The talent displayed and contributed by each member was most superb, and will be missed tremendously when some of them graduate.

Area Vocational Center

The Area Vocational Center offers additional opportunities for students from Seaside, Knappa, Jewell, and Astoria. Here the students may study areas such as Agriculture, Mechanics, Forestry, Animal Science, Horticulture, Electronics, and Industrial Mechanics. Students involved from Seaside High include Front to back: John Burk, David Sarpola, Rick Derby, Tracey Painter, Kris Johnston, Scott Erickson, Tom Merrell, Nate Prasky, Mark Bergerson, Lance Weber, Bill Oliver, Danny Pickell, Ted Fry, Brian Derby, Jeff Price, William Pitman, Jimmy Cozart, Darcy Dickens, Dale Dickens, Phil Davidson, Todd Ellis, David Johnston, and Dave Cozart.

Computer Club

A new club added to S.H.S.'s list of many is the computer club. The computer craze that has spread across the country has affected students at Seaside High as well. Fifteen persons joined together with advisor Jim Troffiter and formed the new club. Together they studied the many possibilities and workings of the computer, in addition to pooling enough money to purchase some new computer discs.

Led by A.S.B. President Nancy Baty, participants in Student Council for the school year 1981-82, set out to get things done, and they did just that. Goals were set, and with the cooperation of the student body and faculty, they were accomplished. There were various fund raisers all proving to be successful. Aside from the usual bake sales and cake raffles, they added some new events: among these were Christmas week, and senior citizen lunch. Student Council invited a new wave rock group called the Blenders to perform at a dance, and invited them back a second time. Camfel Productions, a Los Angeles movie company, entertained the student body with a rock cinematography film called "Everyday Heroes". And, the Portland Timbers came and played 3 games of volleyball against the faculty, the Seaside Rotary, and selected Student Council members.

With all the money raised from their efforts Student Council purchased a stereo system, materials for a signboard in front of the school, and supplies used for the mural design in the cafeteria created by Peter Grant and Sean Adams. Student Council leaders can easily be credited for a job well done.

Academics . . . Pay-Off

Every spring, students, faculty, and members of the community, unite together to honor those students who have achieved excellence in various fields of study. The variety includes academics, leadership, athletics, character, music, and drama. At this time not only do seniors return to receive scholarship money and awards for achievements during their high school career, but outstanding underclassmen are recognized as well. This special day reflects the many accomplishments and goals that have been reached by the students and is an opportunity to say "Thank you for a job well done!"

SENIOR

The senior class overall had a great year for their last time at Homecoming week they were pleased by the performance and they were able to stay in the same place for four years straight. The Jogathon went well for them as a lot of seniors showed up to run as they knew it was for them as well as the other students. They also along with the Juniors provided a dance for the stereo sound system. Overall they will remember their senior year forever.
